

T E X A S

Immigration bond (ICE bond) assistance

Texas is the 1st state by number of people held in ICE detention (about 18,000 people).

Before you reach out

- 01 People are transferred to Texas from all over the country. If the detained person lives in another state, contact the fund in their home state first.
- 02 Have the detainee's A-number (9 digits), the name of the detention center, and the bond amount ready.

All of Texas

RAICES — Bond Program (San Antonio)

Status to confirm

The largest immigration organization in Texas. Its bond fund covers people detained anywhere in the state.

Member of the National Bail Fund Network.

raicetexas.org Mon–Fri, 8:00–17:00 Hours

Program exists; directory listing was updated within the past year

National network

National Bail Fund Network

Active

Fill out the form only if bond has already been set and the amount is known.

Bond assistance request Form

Network of 90+ funds; matches you with a suitable fund

Midwest Immigration Bond Fund

Active

Pays bond wherever the person is detained, including in Texas.

mibfc.org/gethelp Application

If the detained person lives in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Minnesota, or Wisconsin